

ALU 2025 Undergraduate Scholarship Terms and Conditions

Please read the following terms and conditions carefully before signing. Upon acceptance of the Scholarship as defined below, you accept these Terms & Conditions and agree to their requirements.

Please note that ALU reserves the right to modify, amend or supplement these Terms & Conditions at all times without prior notice.

As a recipient of the ALU 2025 Undergraduate Scholarship, the scholarship offer and tenure are based on your approved degree programme at African Leadership University (ALU).

ALU reserves the right to discontinue the scholarship, at any point in your academic programme, if you do not fulfil the terms and conditions of the scholarship. The scholarship may be cancelled should you be found to have provided incorrect, misleading, plagiarised and/or withheld relevant information from ALU. In such a case, ALU reserves the right to pursue disciplinary and/or legal action to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Benefits of the Scholarship

The 2025 ALU Undergraduate Scholarship covers the cost of the following:

- Tuition for the stipulated duration of your approved course of study at ALU.
- Accommodation - For the first two terms of Year 1, Term 1 and Term 2, all Scholars are required to reside in ALU-facilitated campus housing and this payment will be made directly to the accommodation provider.
- Meal plan or stipend equivalent depending on residence policies.
- Daily transport between student housing facilities and campus (as per transport schedule set by ALU).
- Medical Insurance - Upon arrival at university, and throughout the length of study, you will be covered by the university's health insurance plan, which is paid for by the Financial Aid Office. You are required to take initiative and remain informed on what your health insurance plan does and does not cover.
- A laptop with essential software.
- One round trip (flight, bus, etc) to Kigali and back to your home country or city of residence.
- A modest monthly living stipend of $70 (females will get an additional $10 to cater for sanitary supplies) for the duration you will be required to study on campus in Rwanda.

- Scholar Success Package - Financial support to cover essential needs (lump sum) when you return to your home communities to continue with your studies or when you leave the residence after Term 1, irrespective of your country of residence.
- Entry visa fee and student visa if applicable

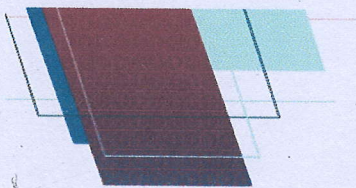

Conditions of the Award

1. The scholarship may only be used at the ALU Rwanda campus and cannot be transferred between campuses or to another academic institution.
2. The scholarship will cover the stipulated tenure of your degree qualification and will be renewed annually, subject to satisfactory academic progress each year.
3. No benefit of the scholarship (laptop, health insurance, flights, tuition, housing, transport) can be exchanged for cash unless otherwise specified.

Programme Requirements

As a scholarship recipient you will:

- Maintain a graduation plan that allows for degree completion within the stipulated time frame for the academic programme of study and convey any changes that impact this plan with the scholarship programme staff in a timely manner. Requests for a limited extension to complete coursework will only be considered in extenuating circumstances, and on a case by case basis.
- Maintain full-time enrollment to receive scholarship funding (with the exception of medical/compassionate withdrawal approved by the programme staff).
- Be required to:
 - I. Attend all required scholarship functions by ALU and the donor in the case of third-party donors.
 - II. Submit academic reports as required by the scholars program team at least once every term and fill out the required survey every term.
 - III. Sign a release that allows a third-party donor to discuss your academic performance with ALU.
 - IV. Participate in an academic success plan if you are deemed by the Assessment Board per Academic Regulations to have failed any module within your programme. As part of this, you will reflect on challenges, identify academic goals, and collaboratively develop an accountability plan for using additional tutoring and other support services. You must demonstrate satisfactory effort and progress in order for the scholarship to be renewed for future years.
 - V. Abide by the Scholarship Handbook, the Student Code of Conduct and all related policies.
 - VI. Follow the laws in your country of study.
